

New College Faculty Orientation
Friday, August 17, 2018
Graylyn Conference Center

- 9:00 am Continental Breakfast
- 9:30 am Welcome and Introduction to the College: Michele Gillespie, Dean of the College
- The Office of the Dean of the College Website
  - Associate Deans and Support Staff
- 10:00am The Office of Academic Advising, Christy Buchanan, Senior Associate Dean for Academic Advising
- 10:15am Cultivating your Scholarly Pursuits, Tony Marsh, Associate Dean for Research, Scholarship, and Creativity
- Where to go when you need help around Scholarship and Creative Work
  - Leaves, Fellowships and Funding
  - Tenure and Promotion
  - Support for Professional Development and Success
- 10:30am Honors & Ethics Council, John Dinan & Barry Maine, Professors, Wake Forest College
- 10:45am Break
- 11:00am Scenarios for Selected University-Wide Support Systems
- Helping Students Work Towards Academic Success
    - Teaching & Learning Collaborative – Betsy Barre, Executive Director
    - Office of Personal and Career Development – Heidi Robinson, Assistant Vice President
    - Wake Forest Scholar’s Office – Tom Phillips, Associate Dean
    - Title IX Office; Learning Assistance Center representative – Tanya Jachimiak, Director
  - Facilitating Students’ Personal-Social Development
    - University Counseling Center – James Raper, Director
    - Women’s Center – Paige Meltzer, Director
    - LGBTQ Center – Angela Mazaris, Director
    - Magnolia Scholars – Nate French, Director
    - Intercultural Center – Jonathan McElderry, Director
- 12:00-1:15pm Lunch
- 1:30pm Wake Forest Faculty Experiences (name, department affiliation, and division affiliation)
- Nathaniel Ivers – Counseling (Div. 1)
  - Alessandra Von Burg – Spanish and Italian (Div. 2)
  - Peter Kairoff – Music (Div. 3)
  - Betina Wilkinson – Politics and International Affairs (Div. 4)
  - Staci Hepler – Mathematics and Statistics (Div. 5)
- 2:30pm Student Perspectives on the Undergraduate Experience at WFU
- 3:30pm Reception at Graylyn