

Opportunities for Funding from the

Mellon Foundation

THE OFFICE OF THE DEAN OF THE COLLEGE

invites you for refreshments

Wednesday, October 17, 2018 ~ 3:00 – 4:00 pm

Z. Smith Reynolds Auditorium

All faculty are invited and encouraged to attend this session to learn about the exciting new opportunities for our campus provided by a second major grant from the Mellon Foundation. The session will provide important information about how you can apply to participate in these and other programs supported by the Mellon Foundation through Summer 2022.

OPPORTUNITIES INCLUDE:

- › Support for developing and implementing interdisciplinary team-taught courses focusing significantly on the engaged humanities
- › Undergraduate summer community engagement fellowships
- › Localized course planning grants
- › Faculty seminars
- › Winston-Salem community seminars
- › Engaged humanities course grants
- › and more!

SESSION PANELISTS:

- › Michele Gillespie
Dean of the College, Presidential Endowed Professor of Southern History
- › Eric Stottlemeyer
Associate Dean for the Engaged Liberal Arts
- › Dean Franco
Director of the Humanities Institute

WAKE FOREST UNIVERSITY

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE
The Undergraduate College of Arts and Sciences

THE HUMANITIES INSTITUTE

PRO HUMANITATE
INSTITUTE
WAKE FOREST UNIVERSITY

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE Humanities

THE ANDREW W.

MELLON FOUNDATION