As he was now approaching the path down from the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to praise God joyfully with a loud voice for all the deeds of power that they had seen, saying, “Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest heaven!” Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him, “Teacher, order your disciples to stop.” He answered,

“I tell you, if these were silent, the stones would shout out.”

Communion
Communion today is celebrated by intinction. You will be given a piece of bread that you are invited to dip into the wine or grape juice. The bread is gluten-free and baked by Marisa Fraley (MDiv ’17). Wine and grape juice are present in both chalices. Wine is in the lesser-filled side of the chalice and inscribed with a “W.” Grape juice is in the greater-filled side of the chalice and is inscribed with a “J.”

Davis Chapel During Lent
Throughout the season of Lent, the chapel space will display visual reminders of our wilderness journey of fasting and repentance. The tapestries at the front have been replaced with purple cloth, symbolizing suffering and penitence. The altar design, including sand and stones, symbolizes desert and wilderness. The fountain will remain off, reminding us of our longing and thirst for God. The open windows, and the single candle in the middle of the altar, symbolize God’s light and presence with us, even in darkness.
