¹ Includes all ground transportation with private bus in Greece, including airport transfers.

² Three-star hotels or better. Based on eight nights at double occupancy. Single occupancy will require an extra fee of $165.

³ Required by Greek law. Tentatively scheduled with Smaro Touloupa, a highly recommended scholar-guide.

⁴ Based on breakfast each day. Some dinners are included in this price as well. Lunches will be students' choice, generally $5-10 each day. Travelers are responsible for costs of some 3-4 dinners, generally $10-$15 each. Every effort will be made to offer economical choices and culinary adventures (not always mutually exclusive) for students, e.g. grocery stores will be available for picnic items at students' discretion.

⁵ Includes entrance to all museums, archaeological sites, and other activities.

⁶ Based on search through www.priceline.com from Friday, March 2 to Sunday, March 11, 2018 round-trip from Charlotte to Athens, Greece ($865) and a one-way trip from Athens to Thessaloniki on March 3, 2018 ($57). Student discounts may apply. Fares may change. Optimal purchase dates are early January 2018

⁷ Tips: Approximately $6 (9 days) per day for our guide and $4 (9 days) per day for our bus driver.
