Come, Come, Whoever You Are

Words based on a poem attributed to Rumi.
Music: Anon.
Spirit of Life

Words and Music ©1981, Carolyn McDade.
Used by permission OneLicense.net License #A-701691

About the Worship Leader
Shakeisha Gray is a third-year student and belongs to a Unitarian Universalist (UU) congregation in Salisbury, NC that she and her husband helped found. She generally identifies as a Humanist and oft times Atheist, but prefers not to be placed into a strict box of non-conformity. Her key principle and moral code for living comes from the UU first principal, “Seeing the worth and dignity in every living thing.”