Physician Assistant Professional Oath

I pledge to perform the following duties with honesty and dedication:

- I will hold as my primary responsibility the health, safety, welfare and dignity of all human beings.*
- I will uphold the tenets of patient autonomy, beneficence, nonmaleficence and justice.*
- I will recognize and promote the value of diversity.*
- I will treat equally all persons who seek my care.*
- I will hold in confidence the information shared in the course of practicing medicine.*
- I will assess my personal capabilities and limitations, striving always to improve my medical practice.*
- I will actively seek to expand my knowledge and skills, keeping abreast of advances in medicine.*
- I will work with other members of the health care team to provide compassionate and effective care of patients.*
- I will use my knowledge and experience to contribute to an improved community.*
- I will respect my professional relationship with the physician.*
- I will share and expand knowledge within the profession.*

These duties are pledged with sincerity and upon my honor.

PRAYER of BENEDICTION The Reverend Richard D. Lowder, PA-C

RECESSIONAL: Processional to "Te Deum" Charpentier

The hardest conviction to get into the mind of a beginner is that the education upon which he is engaged is not a college course, not a medical course, but a life course, for which the work of a few years under teachers is but preparation.

From the Valedictory Address by Sir William Osler
McGill University, April 14, 1905

MARSHALS

(Highest academic performance during the pre-clinical year)

Lauren Fiorito

Candidates for and holders of master's and doctor's degrees wear hoods over their robes.

The hood symbolizes a heavy burden. It identifies the level of the degree, the field of learning and the institution which awards it. The color of the trim declares the major field of learning; forest green represents medicine. The colors that line the hood identify the university awarding the degree.
